Radiology
With Marie-Aude Genain
9.15am in the Radiology Department.

A clean grey scrub top is mandatory. Reasonable personal discretion in your dress is fine but casual clothing e.g. jeans, sandals, trainers, shorts etc is NOT acceptable. Men are expected to wear ties. These dress requirements apply to both Radiology AND RSPCA Clinic.

RSPCA
With Peter Fordyce. 9.00am RSPCA Clinic (Pool Way, Whitehill Road, Cambridge)
You should always have the following available for RSPCA Clinic: Black Books, Thermometer, Stethoscope, Bandage Scissors and Haemostat.

Footcare
With Tim Henshaw. Meet at the Farm Animal Building at 9am. Wear boiler suits, wellington boots and if available, waterproof trousers. Part of the class will be outdoors – dress appropriately

Equine rectal/haptic class (Fortnightly)
With Nicky Holdstock. Class starts promptly in SR2, upstairs in the Teaching Block.
Clean waterproof trousers and boots will be needed later in the morning.

Ophthalmology
With David Williams. 9.00am near the Reception area of the Queen’s Veterinary School Hospital
Grey scrub top obligatory

Veterinary Public Health
With Dan Tucker and Milorad Radakovic. Pre-class prep is described in a handout distributed in the week prior to the practical. Start time 10am.
Session will last approx 2.5 hours with breaks. Venue: LT1

Consultation Skills
With Penny Watson, Nicky Holdstock and others. Come to Seminar Room 2 at 9.15am, No special dress or equipment required.

Clinical Skills Centre
With Jackie Brearley, Nicky Holdstock and Catherine Wager. For Michaelmas term sessions, please meet at 9.30am in the CSC. The timing of the Lent term sessions will be confirmed nearer the time. Please wear grey scrub tops and suitable footwear. Long hair should be tied back and students should be bare below the elbows. Please ensure you have reviewed the rotation specific information on the Veterinary Clinical Skills Moodle site before attending this rotation.

Farm Animal Clinical Methods (Cattle)
Meet at Merton Hall Farm at 9.30am. Name badges are mandatory as are clean wellington boots and boiler suit. Waterproof trousers useful. Thermometer and stethoscope are required.

Lunchtime clinic-pathological discussions:
Venue, time, staff and PPE required – to be confirmed